Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the art of record considered as a whole, alone or in combination, neither anticipates nor renders obvious a stapler comprising a staple former assembly movable in a staple feed direction between a first position for forming staples having a first crown size and a second position for forming staples having a second crown size.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Refer to attachment for notice of references cited and recommended for consideration based on their disclosure of limitations of the claimed invention.
